Introduction

We use Cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. If you continue without changing your settings, we'll assume that you are happy to receive all cookies from this website.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed within your web browser to help the site provide a better user experience. These are used to retain user preferences, store information about your quote, and provide anonymised tracking data to third party applications like Google Analytics.

These cookies will make your browsing experience better and without them our quote process will not function online. However, you may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser, please see section 'Managing Cookies'.

Cookies in use:

Cookie	Name	Description	Domain
GDPR Cookie	_cfduid	The __cfduid cookie is used to identify individual clients behind a shared IP address and apply security settings on a per-client basis	.physiologicalmeasurements.com
Universal Analytics (Google)	_utma _utmb	These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our website. We can use the	.physiologicalmeasurements.com

	_utmc _utmz _ga _gid	information to compile reports and to help us improve the website. The cookies collect information in a way that does not directly identify anyone, including the number of visitors to the website and blog, where visitors have come to the website from and the pages they visited.
GDPR Compliant Cookie	Eucookie	GDPR compliant cookie, protecting data privacy within the EU	www.physiologicalmeasurements.com
PHP Session ID	PHPSESSID	Cookie generated by applications based on the PHP language. This is a general-purpose identifier used to maintain user session variables. It is normally a random generated number, how it is used can be specific to the site, but a good example is maintaining a logged-in status for a user between pages.	www.physiologicalmeasurements.com
