

The Company services provider, with a ground-breaking vision for the future, where individuals at enabled to succeed and are rewarded and recognised for their contribution to our business. Our core purpose is to make people healthier and to enhance and protect lives. From people to products and processes, we aspire to deliver on our purpose is everything we do. Job Purpose PML are a growing company and as a result of expansion, we are seeking 2 full time specialist cardiac Physiologists. Job Purpose We currently have 6 full time echocardiographers and 4 ACPs supporting our common cardiology and sports cardiology services. As a Specialist Sports Cardiac Physiologist, you will be report into the Lead Echocardiographer and Directors, delivering our quality echo service across our spoc cardiology clients, namely amateur/professional footballers across UK football club We are recruiting for 2 posts. It is envisaged that one role will primarily be based in North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be requir line with business requirements. You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the a heart and differentiation from pathology. You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support lite athlete sports cardia assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connec	Title	Specialist Sports Cardiac Physiologist – Echocardiography
The Company Physiological Measurements Limited is an award winning, dynamic and vibrant here services provider, with a ground-breaking vision for the future, where individuals are enabled to succeed and are rewarded and recognised for their contribution to our business. Our core purpose is to make people healthier and to enhance and protect lives. From people to products and processes, we aspire to deliver on our purpose is everything we do. PML are a growing company and as a result of expansion, we are seeking 2 full time specialist cardiac Physiologists. Job Purpose We currently have 6 full time echocardiographers and 4 ACPs supporting our comm cardiology and sports cardiology services. As a Specialist Sports Cardiac Physiologist, you will be report into the Lead Echocardiographer and Directors, delivering our quality echo service across our spo cardiology clients, namely amateur/professional footballers across UK football club We are recruiting for 2 posts. It is envisaged that one role will primarily be based in North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be requir line with business requirements. You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the a heart and differentiation from pathology. You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support elite athlete sports cardi assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a di	•
The Company services provider, with a ground-breaking vision for the future, where individuals at enabled to succeed and are rewarded and recognised for their contribution to our business. Our core purpose is to make people healthier and to enhance and protect lives. From people to products and processes, we aspire to deliver on our purpose i everything we do. Job Purpose PML are a growing company and as a result of expansion, we are seeking 2 full time specialist cardiac Physiologists. Job Purpose We currently have 6 full time echocardiographers and 4 ACPs supporting our comm cardiology and sports cardiology services. As a Specialist Sports Cardiac Physiologist, you will be report into the Lead Echocardiographer and Directors, delivering our quality echo service across our spoc cardiology clients, namely amateur/professional footballers across UK football club We are recruiting for 2 posts. It is envisaged that one role will primarily be based in North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be requir line with business requirements. You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the a heart and differentiation from pathology. You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support elite athlete sports cardia assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical tear provides an opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this ro	alary	160,000 specialist cardiac Physiologists.Job PurposeWe currently have 6 full time echocardiographers and 4 ACPs supporting our comm cardiology and sports cardiology services.As a Specialist Sports Cardiac Physiologist, you will be report into the Lead Echocardiographer and Directors, delivering our quality echo service across our spo cardiology clients, namely amateur/professional footballers across UK football club We are recruiting for 2 posts. It is envisaged that one role will primarily be based in North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be requir line with business requirements.You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the a heart and differentiation from pathology.You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical tear provides an opportunity for those with an interest in this area.The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with ou cardiologists and share images and reports.We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists.	⁻ he Company	business. Our core purpose is to make people healthier and to enhance and protect their lives. From people to products and processes, we aspire to deliver on our purpose in cardiology and sports cardiology services. As a Specialist Sports Cardiac Physiologist, you will be report into the Lead Echocardiographer and Directors, delivering our quality echo service across our spocardiology clients, namely amateur/professional footballers across UK football club We are recruiting for 2 posts. It is envisaged that one role will primarily be based in North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be requir line with business requirements. You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the a heart and differentiation from pathology. You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support elite athlete sports cardi assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical tear provides an opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with ou cardiologists and share images and reports. We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists. 		PML are a growing company and as a result of expansion, we are seeking 2 full time specialist cardiac Physiologists.
 Echocardiographer and Directors, delivering our quality echo service across our spocardiology clients, namely amateur/professional footballers across UK football club We are recruiting for 2 posts. It is envisaged that one role will primarily be based in North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be require line with business requirements. You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the a heart and differentiation from pathology. You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support elite athlete sports cardi assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical tear provides an opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with ou cardiologists and share images and reports. We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists. 	Job Purpose	We currently have 6 full time echocardiographers and 4 ACPs supporting our community cardiology and sports cardiology services.
 North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be requir line with business requirements. You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the a heart and differentiation from pathology. You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support elite athlete sports cardi assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical tear provides an opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with ou cardiologists and share images and reports. We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists. 		As a Specialist Sports Cardiac Physiologist, you will be report into the Lead Echocardiographer and Directors, delivering our quality echo service across our sports cardiology clients, namely amateur/professional footballers across UK football clubs.
 heart and differentiation from pathology. You will be responsible for performing a Resting ECG and a Transthoracic Echocardi to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support elite athlete sports cardi assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical tear provides an opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with ou cardiologists and share images and reports. We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists. 		We are recruiting for 2 posts. It is envisaged that one role will primarily be based in the North Midlands and the other along the M4 corridor, however, travel will be required in line with business requirements.
 to BSE guidance and additional measurements to support elite athlete sports cardi assessments (additional training will be provided to support this if needed.) This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical tear provides an opportunity for those with an interest in this area. The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with ou cardiologists and share images and reports. We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists. 		You will be expected to have an understanding of the physiological changes to the athletes heart and differentiation from pathology.
willingness to travel is essential for this role. We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with ou cardiologists and share images and reports. We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists.		This is a unique opportunity to work with Elite sports people and their medical teams and cardiologists and share images and reports. We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teach from our cardiologists.		The role involves screening at the club or the organisations training facilities and as such a willingness to travel is essential for this role.
from our cardiologists.		We have a digital capability that allows staff to work remotely and connect with our cardiologists and share images and reports.
		We have regular departmental meetings with CPD, clinical presentations and teaching from our cardiologists.
External CPD is encouraged and support id given to attend conferences and scientif meetings, albeit virtually at the moment.		External CPD is encouraged and support id given to attend conferences and scientific meetings, albeit virtually at the moment.
For an informal chat please call Jon Pither 01691 676496		For an informal chat please call Jon Pither 01691 676496

Tasks	 To carry out diagnostic echocardiography and report clinical echo studies independently and promptly to British Society of Echocardiography guidelines. To carry out when required 12 lead resting ECG, occasional Fitting of 24hr, 48hr, 7 day Holter ECG, and 24hr BP. The ability to analyse 24hr/48hr/7day ECG would be desirable. Where needed certified training will be given To report on and code 12 Lead Resting ECG, 24hr Ambulatory Blood Pressure and 24hr, 48hr, 7 day Holter ECG's To assist in monitoring stock levels of consumables and technical equipment. To promote a multi-disciplinary approach to patient care within the Company, ensuring a patient-centered approach to care To actively encourage the development of innovative practices within the department To participate in research projects as required and overseen by the Lead Echocardiographer To work co-operatively and collaboratively with members of other professions and disciplines, ensuring the provision of a progressive learning environment for all staff To contribute to the professional leadership of the technical staff within the services To maintain own proficiency in echocardiography and other technical skills and ensure that own mandatory training certificates are current To manage own time to ensure balance between clinical and administrative activities To organise and arrange one's own travel between client locations, travel expenses will be covered for any business related activities. Dependant on client location, overnight stay may, on occasion, be required. Expenses supported in line with company policies.
Professional Responsibilities	 The post holder has a general duty of care for the health, safety and well-being of work colleagues, visitors and patients within the Company accordance with the Health & Safety at Work Act of 1974 and all other relevant legislation in addition to any specific risk management or clinical governance accountabilities associated with this post The post holder will carry out their duties with due regard to the Company's Human Resources Policy Instructions and other relevant Policies of the Company To observe the rules, policies and procedures of the Company and its Customers To maintain satisfactory personal performance and quality standards and to achieve where possible objectives agreed in the Annual Staff Appraisal system To ensure that acceptable standards of data protection are maintained in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998
	 To observe and maintain strict confidentiality of patient records and staff information: any unauthorised breach of confidentiality may result in disciplinary action
Skills and experience	 The post holder should be member of the British Society of Echocardiography and have current Adult Proficiency and be registered with RCCP Echocardiogram studies should include a full study as per BSE guidelines, but not be limited to the standard measurements.
	The post holder should possess:
	 Excellent Organisational and administrative skills

Proven work experience as an Echo cardiologist
 Experience providing screening services for athletes/sports clubs
 Ability to advise and work with senior members of staff
• Personable with strong communication capabilities with clients, patients and across all levels of the business.
Driven and determined
A full driving licence to travel between client locations
• A flexible approach, during peak seasons weekend work may, on occasion, be required.

To make an application or for further details please contact $\underline{HR@pml.tel}$ with a copy of your CV or details of your enquiry.